ORDER FOR INITIAL PRETRIAL
CONFERENCE MATERIALS

MARY KAY VYSKOCIL, United States District Judge:

The Court directs counsel for all parties to commence discovery, including but not limited to the exchange of initial disclosures, as set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26. Within 14 days of this Order, counsel must meet for at least one hour to discuss the possibility of settlement.

Counsel are further directed to submit a Proposed Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order and joint letter, as required by this Court's Individual Rules of Practice. The documents should be filed on ECF and sent to this Court via email (in both PDF and Microsoft Word formats) on or before July 1, 2025. The status letter may not exceed 6 pages and must include the following:

1. A brief statement of the nature of the case, the principal claims and defenses, and the major legal and factual issues that are most important to resolving the case;
2. A brief statement by the plaintiff, or by the defendant in removed cases, as to the basis of subject matter jurisdiction and venue, and a brief statement by each other party as to the presence or absence of subject matter jurisdiction and venue. Statements shall include citations to relevant statutes. In cases invoking the Court's diversity jurisdiction, the parties should state both the place of incorporation and the principal place of business of any party that is a corporation, and the citizenship of all members, shareholders, partners, and/or trustees of any party that is a partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, or trust;

3. A statement of procedural posture, including
 - a. A brief description of any (i) motions that have been made and decided, (ii) motions that any party seeks or intends to file, including the principal legal and other grounds in support of and opposition to the motion, (iii) pending motions and (iv) other applications that are expected to be made;
 - b. A brief description of any discovery that has already taken place, and a brief description of any discovery that the parties intend to take in the future; and
 - c. A statement describing the status of any settlement discussions and whether the parties would like a settlement conference; and
4. Any other information the parties believe may assist the Court in resolving the action.

Any request for an extension or adjournment shall be made by letter filed on ECF and must be received at least 72 hours before the deadline or conference.

SO ORDERED.
